

Commitment to Education

Under the guidance of its Board of Directors and International Scientific Committee, Serono Symposia International Foundation's educational programs are submitted to recognized CME Accrediting Bodies that evaluate the scientific and educational contents.

Serono Symposia International Foundation's educational events have been accredited through:

- European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME)
- The Royal College of Physicians, (RCP), London, UK
- CME Commission Italian Ministry of Health
- International Council of Nurses (ICN)
- Groupement des Unions Professionnelles Belges de Mediciens Spécialistes (GBS), Belgium
- Spanish Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (SACCME)
- Royal Australian College of Physicians (RACP)
- Royal College of Nursing (RCN), UK
- Bayerischen Landesärztekammer (BLÄK), Germany
- Ärztekammer Berlin, Germany
- Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (RCOG)

Furthermore, the Serono Symposia International Foundation pursues the goal to support the development of CME systems in countries where no such systems yet exist.
