

Metabolic Endocrinology

em

Serono Symposia International Foundation events cover a wide spectrum of issues in endocrinology (adult and pediatric), metabolism (HIV/AIDS), genetics, and more.

In every instance, the objective is to educate medical professionals and help them improve patient outcomes.

Through live events, online programs and publications, we highlight important advances in research and practice and help you learn more about new ways to enhance patient care.

NEWS